RAVE REVIEW FOR GREEN/MOYER DUO RECITAL

Southern Pines, NC, October 29, 2010 - A recent joint performance by cellist Nancy Green and pianist Frederick Moyer was hailed as “a rock-solid gala program” by John W. Lambert of Classical Voice of North Carolina.

The concert, which was held at the Weymouth Center in Southern Pines, NC, featured music by Schumann, Prokofiev and Franck as well as a tribute to Norris L Hodgkins,

Lambert comments on the Schumann: “...the recital got underway with the three Fantasiestücke, Op. 73, of Robert Schumann, the 200th anniversary of whose birth is being observed throughout the world this year. These are dramatic and dynamic vignettes, composed for clarinet or cello and piano. The artists dug into them with appropriate vigor and enthusiasm, and the immediacy of their playing and their close proximity to the audience made revisiting the music a truly invigorating experience.”

Lambert goes on to say, “Their playing, which represented an ideal form of partnership, brought the program to an end and the audience, to its feet, in gratitude.” He ends by saying, “Music lovers who have not experienced Green and Moyer together owe it to themselves to be alert for future concerts hereabouts.
